Pension Notice 30 Account (Issue 2)

Fact Sheet (including Specific Conditions, Financial Services Compensation Scheme (FSCS) Information Sheet & Exclusions List)

Effective from 11 November 2024

The Cater Allen Pension Notice 30 Account (Issue 2) could be an excellent choice if you're looking to grow your savings and you can give at least 30 days' notice of any withdrawal.

This account is subject to status and availability and may be withdrawn from sale at any time without notice.

This is a non-payment account for non-personal customers. The table below sets out specific conditions for your account. These conditions apply as well as the non-personal terms.

Summary box
Account name	Pension Notice 30 Account (Issue 2)
What is the interest rate?	3.05% AER / 3.01% gross (variable)
	◦ We work out the interest we'll pay on your account each day. ◦ We'll pay interest into the account after the close of business on the last day of each month. ◦ We pay interest without taking off income tax. This is known as 'gross' and the interest rate we give you reflects this.
Can Cater Allen change the interest rate?	Yes, we can change the interest rate on this account as explained in the non-personal terms.
What would the estimated balance be after 12 months based on a £1,000 deposit?	Interest earned
	Balance after 12 months
	£30.50	£1,030.50
To work out the estimated balance, we've assumed that: ◦ The account is opened and the initial payment into the account is made on the 1st day of the month. ◦ You don't pay in any more money or take any out. ◦ There is no change to the interest rate. ◦ Interest is paid into the account each month. This illustration is only an example and doesn't take into account your individual circumstances.

AER stands for Annual Equivalent Rate and shows what the interest rate would be if we paid interest and added it to your account each year. The gross rate is the interest rate we pay where no income tax has been deducted.

Eligibility and how do I manage my account?	Eligibility You can have this account if you're 18 or over and live in the UK. You'll need to apply for the account through your pension provider who has an existing relationship with us. If you're a Small Self-Administered Pension Scheme (SSAS), you must include a 'professional signatory' as well as the scheme member trustee(s) as authorised users on the account. A 'professional signatory' can, for example, be the scheme's corporate trustee or scheme administrator. If this is for a Self-Invested Personal Pension (SIPP), the SIPP provider will have control of the account and will manage your personal pension assets on your behalf. They must be FCA regulated. So when you apply for the account, you must apply for the SIPP provider to become an authorised user. You can have an account in your sole name or jointly with up to 3 other people. Managing the account The account can be managed by phone or post. You can only view the account using Internet Banking. If you have a SIPP, any instructions on your account need to be authorised by the SIPP provider. Paying money in ◦ Minimum balance: None. ◦ Maximum balance: None. The account is only available in pounds sterling. Money can be paid into the account electronically or by cheque. If you have a SIPP, this can only be done by the SIPP provider. You can ask us for a postal paying-in book for cheques.
Can I withdraw money?	Yes. You can take money out of your account by electronic payment only. If you have a SIPP this will need to be authorised by the SIPP provider. Charges for taking out money or closing the account No charges apply when you take money out or close your account if you give us 30 days' notice. If you take money out or close your account without giving this notice in full, we'll charge you an amount equal to 30 days' interest on the amount you take out. We'll work out this charge using the rate of interest on the account which applies on the date you take the money out or the date the account is closed (whichever applies). If your account hasn't been open for 30 days, the charge will be applied for the number of days it has been open. This charge will be shown on your next statement. We'll take this charge from your account or, if you close it, from the amount we send you when we do this.
If you change your mind	If you change your mind about this account and you want to close it, let us know. If you have a SIPP, you should contact your SIPP provider. You can close your account at any time during your 'cancellation period' – we won't charge you for it. This is 14 days, starting the day after we confirmed your account is open. If you do this, we'll return your money together with any interest we owe you. We'll do this as soon as we can (and within 30 days from when you tell us). You can also close your account at any other time outside this cancellation period. To avoid paying a charge, you must give us 30 days' notice that you want to close the account.
Additional information	Statements We'll prepare a statement on the 20th of each month and send it to you monthly by post. You can ask us to send them less frequently or through Internet Banking.

The following information doesn't form part of our agreement with you

Our rights under our agreement with you

The non-personal terms set out our relationship with you and explain how your account will operate. Under those terms, we have a number of rights that you should be aware of. These include:

- Refusing or delaying payments
 - We can refuse to make a payment from your account or to accept a payment into your account for various reasons. These are set out in the non-personal terms and include a number of reasons related to concerns about possible scams, fraud or the security of your account.
 - We can also delay payments while we investigate. This could mean you're late in paying someone you need to pay.
 - If we remain concerned, we may refuse to make the payment even if you have checked it and confirmed you want it to go ahead.
- Blocking access to your account
 - We may block access to your account for various reasons, including if we have concerns about security or fraud. We can also block access if you don't give us information we need from you.
 - We may retain money in your account and not pay it to you in some situations. We'll only do this if another person claims that the money belongs to them or you don't address any concerns we have about the origin of the money.
 - We can block a third party provider from accessing your account if we think they don't have consent or are acting fraudulently.
- Situations when we may take money out of your account
 - We can take money out of your account in a number of situations set out in the non-personal terms.
 - We can do this if we paid you the money by mistake or if we think you received the money from someone else by mistake and we're asked to return it.
 - We can also do it if we paid you a refund and then find out you weren't entitled to it.
 - We can take money from your account to repay amounts you owe us or another Santander company.
- Changing or ending the agreement
 - We can change the interest rate (unless it's fixed), fees or other terms at any time by giving you notice. The reasons when we can do this are set out in the non-personal terms.
 - We can end this agreement immediately for various reasons set out in the non-personal terms, including if you break the agreement, are abusive to our staff or misuse your account.

Additional information

1 Scheme responsible for the protection of your eligible deposit

Your eligible deposit is covered by a statutory Deposit Guarantee Scheme. If insolvency of your bank, building society or credit union should occur, your eligible deposits would be repaid up to £85,000 by the Deposit Guarantee Scheme.

2 General limit of protection

If a covered deposit is unavailable because a bank, building society or credit union is unable to meet its financial obligations, depositors are repaid by a Deposit Guarantee Scheme. This repayment covers at maximum £85,000 per bank, building society or credit union. This means that all eligible deposits at the same bank, building society or credit union are added up in order to determine the coverage level. If, for instance a depositor holds a savings account with £80,000 and a current account with £20,000, he or she will only be repaid £85,000.

This method will also be applied if a bank, building society or credit union operates under different trading names. Cater Allen Limited also trades under the name Cater Allen Private Bank. This means that all eligible deposits with one or more of these trading names are in total covered up to £85,000. In some cases eligible deposits which are categorised as "temporary high balances" are protected above £85,000 for six months after the amount has been credited or from the moment when such eligible deposits become legally transferable. These are eligible deposits connected with certain events including:

- (a) certain transactions relating to the depositor's current or prospective only or main residence or dwelling;
- (b) a death, or the depositor's marriage or civil partnership, divorce, retirement, dismissal, redundancy or invalidity;
- (c) the payment to the depositor of insurance benefits or compensation for criminal injuries or wrongful conviction.

More information can be obtained under <http://www.fscs.org.uk>

3 Limit of protection for joint accounts

In case of joint accounts, the limit of £85,000 applies to each depositor.

However, eligible deposits in an account to which two or more persons are entitled as members of a business partnership, association or grouping of a similar nature, without legal personality, are aggregated and treated as if made by a single depositor for the purpose of calculating the limit of £85,000.

4 Reimbursement

The responsible Deposit Guarantee Scheme is the Financial Services Compensation Scheme, 10th Floor Beaufort House, 15 St Botolph Street, London, EC3A 7QU, Tel: 0800 678 1100 or 020 7741 4100, Email: ICT@fscs.org.uk. It will repay your eligible deposits (up to £85,000) within 20 working days until 31 December 2018; within 15 working days from 1 January 2019 until 31 December 2020; within 10 working days from 1 January 2021 to 31 December 2023; and within 7 working days from 1 January 2024 onwards, save where specific exceptions apply.

Where the FSCS cannot make the repayable amount available within 7 working days, it will, from 1 June 2016 until 31 December 2023, ensure that you have access to an appropriate amount of your covered deposits to cover the cost of living (in the case of a depositor which is an individual) or to cover necessary business expenses or operating costs (in the case of a depositor which is not an individual or a large company) within 5 working days of a request.

If you have not been repaid within these deadlines, you should contact the Deposit Guarantee Scheme since the time to claim reimbursement may be barred after a certain time limit. Further information can be obtained under <http://www.fscs.org.uk>.

Other Important Information

In general, all retail depositors and businesses are covered by Deposit Guarantee Schemes. Exceptions for certain deposits are stated on the website of the responsible Deposit Guarantee Scheme. Your bank, building society or credit union will also inform you of any exclusions from protection which may apply. If deposits are eligible, the bank, building society or credit union shall also confirm this on the statement of account.

EXCLUSIONS LIST

A deposit is excluded from protection if:

- (1) The holder and any beneficial owner of the deposit have never been identified in accordance with money laundering requirements. For further information, contact your bank, building society or credit union.
- (2) The deposit arises out of transactions in connection with which there has been a criminal conviction for money laundering.
- (3) It is a deposit made by a depositor which is one of the following:
 - credit institution
 - financial institution
 - investment firm
 - insurance undertaking
 - reinsurance undertaking
 - collective investment undertaking
 - pension or retirement fund¹
 - public authority, other than a small local authority
- (4) It is a deposit of a credit union to which the credit union itself is entitled.
- (5) It is a deposit which can only be proven by a financial instrument² (unless it is a savings product which is evidenced by a certificate of deposit made out to a named person and which existed in the UK, Gibraltar or a Member State of the EU on 2 July 2014).
- (6) It is a deposit of a collective investment scheme which qualifies as a small company.³
- (7) It is a deposit of an overseas financial services institution which qualifies as a small company.⁴
- (8) It is a deposit of certain regulated firms (investment firms, insurance undertakings and reinsurance undertakings) which qualify as a small business or a small company⁵ – refer to the FSCS for further information on this category.
- (9) It is not held by an establishment of a bank, building society or credit union in the UK or, in the case of a bank or building society incorporated in the UK, it is not held by an establishment in Gibraltar.

¹ Deposits by personal pension schemes, stakeholder pension schemes and occupational pension schemes of micro, small and medium sized enterprises are not excluded.

² As listed in Part I of Schedule 2 to the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, read with Part 2 of that Schedule

³ Under the Companies Act 1985 or Companies Act 2006

⁴ See footnote 3

⁵ See footnote 3
